Accurate disclosure is essential to monitor whether officials have conflicts of interest and to help ensure public trust in government. The biennial review examines current programs to ensure that the agency's code includes disclosure by those agency officials who make or participate in making governmental decisions.

This agency has reviewed its conflict of interest code and has determined that (check one BOX):

An amendment is required. The following amendments are necessary:

(Check all that apply.)

- Include new positions
- Revise disclosure categories
- Revise the titles of existing positions
- Delete titles of positions that have been abolished and/or positions that no longer make or participate in making governmental decisions
- Other (describe) _____

The code is currently under review by the code reviewing body.

No amendment is required. (If your code is over five years old, amendments may be necessary.)

Verification (to be completed if no amendment is required)

This agency's code accurately designates all positions that make or participate in the making of governmental decisions. The disclosure assigned to those positions accurately requires that all investments, business positions, interests in real property, and sources of income that may foreseeably be affected materially by the decisions made by those holding designated positions are reported. The code includes all other provisions required by Government Code Section 87302.

DEL PUERTO HEALTH CARE DISTRICT

Conflict of Interest Code

(As reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors, August 25, 2014)

The Political Reform Act, Government Code, Section 81000, et seq., requires each state and local government agency to adopt and promulgate a Conflict of Interest Code. The Fair Political Practices Commission has adopted a regulation, 2 California Administrative Code, Section 18730, which contains the terms of a standard conflict of interest code. It can be incorporated by reference and may be amended by the Fair Political Practices Commission after public notice and hearing to confirm to amendments in the Political Reform Act. Therefore, the terms of 2 California Administrative Code, Section 18730, and any amendments to it duly adopted by the Fair Political Practices Commission, are hereby incorporated by reference and along with the attached Appendix consisting of Attachments A through C, in which members and employees are designated (Attachment A) and disclosure categories (Attachment B) are set forth, and the place of filing is specified (Attachment C), shall constitute the Conflict of Interest Code of the Del Puerto Health Care District.

Designated employees shall file statements of economic interest with the agency. Upon receipt of the statements of the various designated members and employees, the designated agency shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the place of filing, as indicated on Attachment C.

Attachment B

Disclosure Categories for Designated Positions

Category I

Investments, interests in real property and income received during the period since the previous economic interest statement, as defined in California Government Code section 87200, et seq.

Category II

Investments, business positions, interests in real property and sources of income if, pursuant to California Government Code section 87302, the business entity in which the investment or business position is held, the interest in real property, or the income or source of income of the public official, or a member of his or her immediate family may foreseeably be affected materially, as defined in California Government Code section 87103, by any decision made or participated in by the designated employee by virtue of his or her position.

Category III

Consultants shall be included in the list of designated employees and shall disclose pursuant to the broadest disclosure category in the code subject to the following limitations:

The Board of Directors may determine in writing that a particular consultant, although a "designated position," is hired to perform a range of duties that are limited in scope and thus is not required to fully comply with the disclosure requirements described in this section. Such written determination shall include a description of the consultant's duties and, based upon that description, a statement of the extent of the disclosure requirements. The Board of Directors' determination is a public record and shall be retained for public inspection in the same manner and location as this conflict of interest code.
